

Parasha Ha'Azinu – Our Redemption Foretold

(Deuteronomy 32:1 – 32:52)

By Michael Nunes (JEWMAICA, Jamaica)

(Please continue to support Torah VeAhava and Obadyah Alliance with your kind donations at <https://obadyah.com>, and SephardicU at www.sephardicu.com.)

As Jewmaica forged ahead in re-establishing a Portuguese Jewish community, we encouraged all descendants of Israel (those Spanish Portuguese, and we call our Igbo {Heebo/Eboe/Ibo} brothers and others) to join us in rebuilding this, our goodly heritage.

“For the Lord shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he sees that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left.” [Deuteronomy 32:36]

The pasuk above refers to the state Am Yisrael (The people of Yisrael), after experiencing great calamities due to the deviating decisions from the path of Le' Moshe MiSinai and embracing new gods (worshiping gods instead of יהוה).

Yet, even after this great error by Am Yisrael, God indicates that He will repent Himself and declares He will not only saved Am Yisrael but He will execute judgment on the nations who part took in the demise. Hence we see in ibid:42-43

“I will make My arrows drunk with blood, as My sword devours flesh, blood of the slain and the captive, from the long-haired enemy chiefs....” [JPS TaNaKh 1985]

We the decedents and people of Yisrael should rejoice that God has not forgotten us. He will surely rescue us and returned us to the promised covenant of our forefathers. Yet, we too must reject all the foreign ways – ways not taught to us by our Teacher – Moses and our forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and surely return to our goodly heritage יהוה .

Shanah Tovah v' Shabbat Shalom